

Tartars Will Unveil 'New Look' Grid Team

Twenty-two TORRANCE HERALD OCT. 14, 1954

Team Shake-up May Provide Key to Victory

"The New Look." That's what the Torrance varsity football crew will display tomorrow evening when they pounce onto the high school field to meet Inglewood high here at 8 o'clock.

Featuring a line-up that's calculated to keep the invaders shrouded in suspense and surprise, the Tartars hope this will be the big punch—the win they need to keep them in the league race.

Inglewood has yet to perform in a Bay Conference tussle, and the locals dropped their opener to Centennial last week.

In practice this week the locals looked good, and if they can hold that teamwork together under the reshuffled system, the varsity crew might well smash through with a win.

Hold Dad's Night. It'll be a big night for the Tartars, as many of the fathers of the players will be on the bench in observance of annual Dad's Day at the high school. So for the players, it would be mighty nice to get a pat on the back from a right proud papa.

Coaches Cliff Graybehl and Dick Leech have tightened up in all positions, and will start many who heretofore have been purely reservists. In practice this week, many of the neophytes came through to show the first stringers a thing or two, so win spots on the starting berth.

Bob Hanks, the toe expert for the locals on fourth down, will fill an offensive right end slot, replacing Bob Boss. Boss will handle the left end defense post.

Gruver to Start. In the backfield, Dorsey Gruver will get a chance to kick off the shackles at the opening quarterback position, Jerry Burns will start at right half, Don Frattarole for Sonny Steele at left half, and Jerry Hughes will hope to blast at fullback, replacing Skip Smith.

Hoping to rope up the invaders will be Denny Hester, John Gomez, Don Ivata, Jim Donnette, Vanderpool, Boss, and Frattarole, on offense, plus four other guys who as yet haven't been named.

Inglewood was clobbered by powerful Fremont, 38-14, last week, and as a result, not only lost the ball game but half of the first-string squad.

Coach Paul Monahan said yesterday that he will start at least four or third stringers against the Tartars.

Howard Slaven, a booming center, will be out with a dislocated knee. Bob Clarke, first string right tackle, has swollen hands, and probably will not be in shape for tomorrow.

Inglewood seeks win. But nevertheless, the invaders will be searching for a win, their first of the year. They hang on players like Bruce Carmichael of the famous Carmichael family; Paul Pedigo, a passing fullback who was largely responsible for the scores against Fremont, and Nick Martino, a sharp end.

Inglewood operates out of a tee, often shifting into the single wing for pass plays. They are noted for a razzle-dazzle attack designed to confuse everybody but the teammates.

Graybehl was fast to admit this week that it is highly possible that many potentially good ball players have been overlooked in practice and in games to date.

HOPE TO HALT OLYMPIANS . . . Here's half a dozen reasons why the Torrance varsity griders think they'll halt any attack thrown against them by the invading Inglewood griders tomorrow night at the local high school field. Defensive stalwarts include, from left, Tom Vanderpool, Don Ivata, John Gomez, Bob Boss, Jim Donnette, and Don Frattarole. Game time is 8 o'clock. The mix is a Bay League fray.

Camino Rests While Metro Clubs Tangle

El Camino College's griders sit it out this week, while other teams of the Metropolitan Conference go to it tooth and nail for a crack at the glittering gold cup now held by Bakersfield.

The Warriors won't see action until Saturday, Oct. 23, when they go against Long Beach City College at Long Beach.

But this week-end, the Vikings will host San Diego with hopes of sharpening up for the coming encounter with the locals. El Camino knocked the San Diego crew, 13-0, last week.

Long Beach had its hands full with East Los Angeles Junior College last week and came out on the short side of a 13-0 score. East Los Angeles will be pitted against Harbor Tech, Friday. Harbor was routed by San Bernardino, 20-6, in a practice tiff.

Bakersfield, the defending circuit champs, waxed Valley in another league mix-up, and won, 7-0. It was the third victory in a row for the Renegades, who'll start against Pasadena City College this week-end.

Santa Monica will lock horns with Valley Saturday, hoping to repeat its winning efforts. The Bay boys sent Sacramento home with a 10-14 loss, last game.

In summary, it'll be Harbor at East Los Angeles, Bakersfield meeting Pasadena City College, San Diego at Long Beach, Santa Monica at Valley, and El Camino sitting it out.

Don Ziemke Scores Twice as Serra High Blasts Out Win

Quarterback Don Ziemke and halfback Frank McCargar each blasted over for twin scores as the Junipero Serra High School smothered Notre Dame 27-0 in a Catholic League mix, last week-end.

Serra, bolstered by a number of Torrance players, will meet St. Anthony's of Long Beach tomorrow night at the Beach city.

Tackles Mike Morrell and Mike Reagan were singled out as big guns of the Cavalier's forward wall, and helped the defense hold the Knights to a mere 69 yards gained on the ground last week.

On offense the Cavaliers ran and passed to a total of 431 yards, and made 15 first downs to 5.

Don Ziemke, a Torrance lad, had a field day on passing. He twirled a 52 yard throw to Skip Anderson, then drove four yards on a QB-sneak for one of his touchdowns. Later, in the fourth, Don passed to Halfback Jim Mullens and set himself up to rip off right tackle for 7 yards and another tally.

Dewey Gansmer, Captain Jim Cowden, Gerry Stadler, Phil Shelton, Jerry Ujbe, and Dick Faber all were pointed out by the coaches as excellent performers.

Meets Merchants

Torrance Bluebirds baseball team will meet the Huntington Park Merchants, Sunday, at the El Camino College diamond, Redondo Beach Blvd. and Crenshaw Blvd. Game time is 1:30.

Youth Week Planned

"Youth - America's Richest Heritage," will be the theme of National Catholic Youth Week, which will be held from Oct. 31 through Nov. 7. Rev. John J. Birch, Archdiocesan Director of the Catholic Youth Organization, has announced.

This Week

TODAY
Torrance Bees at Inglewood, 2:45.

TOMORROW
Torrance Varsity vs. Inglewood, High School, 8 p.m.
Santa Monica at Paramount, Redondo at Beverly Hills, Centennial at Leuzinger, Junipero Serra at St. Anthony's.

Babes Off Again; Meet Inglewood

Big things come in small packages, they say, and that might well sum up the Torrance Bees.

For the second week in a row, the Tartarbabes will board the bus for a football game on foe ground, this time at Inglewood High School this afternoon at 2:45.

No major changes will be seen in the starting line-ups, says Coach Don Porter, but Jim Haworth probably will go most of the game, with Craig Edman nursing a sore arm.

Mike Bertolet, who blasted over for a tally in the locals' mix with Centennial last week, also gets the nod for a backfield starting slot. The Apaches squeezed the Tartars for a 7-6 win last Thursday.

Only other substitution probably will be that of Gene Daimler playing at the right end position, with Tom Kulp at the other side.

Billy Reeves and Bob Grajeda will round out the ball-carrying chores.

Going the other way, Daimler, Kulp, Bertolet, Haworth and Grajeda also will see action, bolstered by Bob Curran, Gary Knox, Charlie Valencia, Tom Koehn and Al Bledsoe, on defense.

Next home fray for the Bees will be Oct. 21, with Paramount High School.

ROD & GUN Chatter

By Donna Barkdull

Opening week-end of the split waterfowl season was termed "generally spotty" in most Southern areas. The Salton Sea again this year seems best bet for local shotguns, not wanting to travel far. A good number of ducks are reported at Tule Lake, but the better shooting is expected later on in the season after storms up north send flights southward.

The second half of the split dove season opened noon Tuesday, with birds spotty in most of the shooting areas. The Imperial Valley and areas around Blythe are the most likely hot-spots, but generally speaking, prospects are dim.

Weekend report from San Diego states yellowtail fishing going in full swing. Over 1700 taken for both Saturday and Sunday.

The Fay Paris, Dr. and Mrs. Fossum, the Dave Joneses, and the Jack Millers, all in their house trailers, camped on the Sacramento River, just about 125 miles above Sacramento, for the last three weeks intent on netting a few of the much-sought-after salmon. It never fails that the one going for the first time gets the whopper. Fay showed the champs a thing or two by horsing in a beautiful king salmon topping 36 lbs., besides a 20-pounder.

Dave brought to gaff two, going 8 and 14 lbs. The Fossums are still there and might possibly slaughter them as the commercial nets at the mouth of the river had been pulled and there are plenty of fish heading upstream.

Mighty (?) hunters Paul Smith, Walt Gillard, Bob O'Neal and Kenny Price journeyed to Idaho, packing into the wild country above Grangeville for big game, mostly elk. Walt sighted what he thought was an elk but not being sure did not shoot. Kenny bagged a couple of bear cubs and a deer. He shot at the mother bear and thinks he wounded her. Bad country to be looking for a wounded bear, so the guide said he would look on his next trip in.

Paul downed a deer and they all bagged grouse, blue grouse and fowlshens. All in all, they said the trip was well worth the expense.

Walt and Lois Gillard bagged limits of ducks opening day at the Salton Sea. Then, it was good on teals, and fair on widgones, greenwings, blue wings, cinnamons and shoviers.

In Tulare County, at Dutch Flats above the south fork of the Kern River, deer are running all over the place. Louise and Clarence Laney and their party reaped three forked horns dressing out at 110 lbs., 135 lbs., and 139 lbs., and one coyote. While they were there the state trapper bagged a huge mountain lion measuring 11 feet 8 inches from his nose to his tail. That's an awfully big cat! Think this kid will stick to fishing!

Another nice buck was brought back from Mono County near June Lake by Eddie Dykstra, a three-pointer tipping the scales at 142 lbs., field dressed.

Saturday night, Pier Point Landing again was the scene of a stinger derby. This time members of the Gardena Valley Rod and Gun participated, vying for a trophy. A 44-pounder reeled in by Fred Bieker was top catch of the three or four taken during the night. All agreed there could have been more action.

Golf Pros Open Torrance Links Tuesday Evening

Set to open his new golf driving range on Crenshaw Blvd. at the east end of the airport tomorrow is Jim Crawford, native of Torrance and presently an employee of the Union Oil Co.

Crawford, who attended Torrance High School, announced this week that his "Torrance Fairways" will open for play tomorrow and that a gala grand opening fête at which several professional golfers will conduct a clinic will be held next Tuesday evening, Oct. 19.

Among the visiting golfers former PGA president; Bud Oakley, PGA tourney champ and present pro at Palos Verdes; Ralph Evans, present Southern California PGA title holder and pro at Clock Country Club in Whittier; and Mike Austin, Windsor Hills golfer,

Harbor Swim Pool Will Open By Summer-City

Swimmers will be dipping and diving in the proposed new Harbor Park pool near Harbor Junior College next summer, the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Commission promised today, even though a contract has not yet been awarded.

The Commission called in a previous award of a $197,000 contract to build the pool because of a "technical flaw" in the bid.
